Mrs. Astrid Salazar is widely regarded as the most outstanding dance pioneer, director and choreographer of Aruba.

After an initiative dance career in the USA, she returned to Aruba and consequently taught the love and practice of dance to several generations of students of all ages and in many dance styles.

By founding the Simadanza Dance School and Dance Company in the 1970's, she created both a cultural institution and a new, unequalled synthesis of folkloric and modern dance styles Aruba is proud to call its own.
